The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

BURLINGTON, May 22, 1765.

The SPEECH of His EXCELLENCY WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq; Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.

Gentlemen of the COUNCIL, Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the ASSEMBLY,

IT is with infinite Satisfaction that I embrace this firſt Opportunity of congratulating you upon the happy Termination of Hoſtilities with the Indians. By the wiſe Meaſures of His Majeſty's General, and the judicious, ſpirited Conduct of Colonel BOUQUET, they have been reduced to accept the moſt humiliating Terms of Accommodation. They were not only compelled to deliver up all their Priſoners, but even their own Children, born of white Women; and to give up a Number of their principal Chiefs, to remain as Hoſtages, till they ſhould ſend Deputies to Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, to ſettle a Peace upon ſuch further Terms as he ſhould think neceſſary.

The Troops you enabled me to ſend into the Field, for the laſt Campaign, were of conſiderable Service: Their Behaviour, in every Reſpect, was ſuch as did Honour to the Province. The Guards placed on our Frontiers have likewiſe done their Duty, and the Inhabitants have been fully protected from the Incurſions of the Enemy.

I have it in Charge from His Majeſty to recommend to you the Facilitating the Conveyance of Letters, by the Poſts, through this Province. A regular, ſafe and ſpeedy Correſpondence is of the utmoſt Importance to His Majeſty's Service, and to the commercial Intereſt and general Convenience of his Subjects. It is therefore not to be doubted but the Legiſlatures of the ſeveral Colonies will readily and chearfully promote the Eſtabliſhment of Ferries, the Erection of Bridges, the Improvement of Roads, and whatever elſe may contribute to prevent Delays and Interruptions to the Poſts in paſſing.---His Majeſty's Deputy Poſtmaſters General for the Northern Diſtrict of America, have given me Aſſurances, that if the Legiſlature of this Province will cauſe Bridges to be erected over Ancocus, and the Creek near the Barracks in this City, they will order the Poſts to take that Route in their Way between New-York and Philadelphia; as the Communication will be thereby conſiderably ſhortened, and rendered far more certain. The many Advantages to the Province in general, which will attend this Meaſure, if carried into Execution, will, in my Opinion, greatly overballance any Inconveniences it may occaſion. Indeed, all of the latter, which I have yet heard ſuggeſted, have been either imaginary, or ſuch as are merely local, and might be eaſily obviated.

I have received from the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, an Order of His Majeſty in Council, repealing the "Act for rendering void the Lottery lately made by Peter Gordon, for the Sale of certain Lands in the County of Middleſex," paſſed in the Time of your late Governor. Their Lordſhips Reaſons for propoſing the Repeal of this Act, and for not laying before His Majeſty an Act paſſed at the ſame time, "for impoſing a Duty upon the Importation of Negroes," will appear by an Extract of their Letter, which the Secretary will communicate to you.

It would afford me, Gentlemen, the greateſt Pleaſure to ſee the Inhabitants of this Province, now Peace is ſo happily eſtabliſhed, turning their Attention to the Cultivation and Production of ſuch Articles as might ſerve for Remittances to the Mother Country; and which, at the ſame time that they tended to her Advantage, might prove beneficial to the Colony. For this Purpoſe, I would recommend to you to grant a Bounty to encourage the Raiſing of Hemp and Flax, and the Cutting of Plank and Timber, for Exportation to Great-Britain. The Parliament have already granted ſome Encouragement to the two firſt Articles, and the truly laudable Society for Arts, Manufactures and Commerce, have ſhewn a Diſpoſition to promote the others. They have, for that End, ſent into ſeveral of the Colonies Boxes, containing Specimens of divers Sorts of Fir Timber, and Deals, which are imported into England from Riga and Norway, with a Deſcription of the ſame, and the Prices they are ſold at. One of theſe Boxes and Deſcriptions I have received, and ſhall order to be ſhewn to any of the Inhabitants of the Colony, who may incline to ſee them. This you may depend on, that every Species of Timber has for many Years been riſing in Price in Great-Britain; and that there is ſcarce any Thing wanting, to make a ready Vent for Oak, Fir, Pine, Cypreſs, and Cedar from America, but a Knowledge of the Scantlings wanted for each particular Uſe, and to cut for that Market good Wood, in the right Seaſon.

The Society before mentioned have likewiſe given handſome Premiums for the Encouragement of the Culture of Silk, and the Making of Wines and Pot-aſh in America; and as they might be produced in this Province (as appears by ſome Experiments made in the neighbouring Colonies) it might be worth your Enquiry, whether it would not be proper for the Legiſlature to grant ſuch further Aſſiſtance as may be ſufficient to incite the People to undertake the Production of thoſe valuable Articles.

The Militia Law being near expired, it is neceſſary that you ſhould take that Matter into your Conſideration. A well regulated Militia is of the utmoſt Importance to the Security of the Inhabitants from foreign Invaſions, and internal Commotions. Our Law for that Purpoſe has been generally complained of as defective in ſeveral material Points, but I hope this Seſſions will produce one leſs liable to Objection.

Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the ASSEMBLY,

Beſides the due Support of His Majeſty's Government, I have only to recommend that you would make Proviſion for the Pay owing to the Forces raiſed laſt Year, for the Time they were obliged to ſerve after the Firſt Day of November.

Gentlemen of the COUNCIL, Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the ASSEMBLY,

So many Benefits to the Public have reſulted from a perfect Harmony ſubſiſting between the different Branches of the Legiſlature in this Province, that I am convinced no Arguments are neceſſary to induce you to endeavour its Preſervation and Continuance; I ſhall therefore only add my earneſt Wiſhes, that all your Conſultations may be productive of the moſt happy Conſequences to this Country.

THE BREWERY in Sixth-ſtreet, lately employed by Clarke and Moore, is now occupied by ISAAC HOWELL, who intends carrying on the Brewing Buſineſs, and will be obliged to thoſe that will favour him with their Cuſtom.-------He has now for Sale, choice bottled Beer, Sixpenny, and Small-beer for Family and Ships Uſe. ¶

Three purs rs warrants for capital ships of war have this week been made out, and we hear a considerable naval force will soon be appointed to sail for the East-Indies.

They write from Warsaw, that the communication between the Russians and the Turks on the side of the Ukraine, is entirely cut off; not on account of any misunderstanding between the two powers, but because the plague is broke out there, and the necessary precautions are taking on both sides to stop its progress.

April 13. It is said advice has this week been received, that her Royal Highness the Princess of Brunswick is again pregnant.

The Artificers in the Dock-Yards at Chatham, Plymouth, and Portsmouth, are very busy in repairing the ships of war in those harbours, who want it, that they may be ready for service at the shortest notice.

The Indian Queen, Purs, from South Carolina and Pool, for Amsterdam, is ashore on the East side of the Texel, and full of water.

We hear an exchange of territory is now upon the carpet between the Courts of Copenhagen and London, by which the former are to enjoy certain lands in some of the new British American colonies, in return for the Danish island of St. Thomas, lying under the equinoctial, of great advantage to the English commerce on the coast of Africa.

April 16. Private letters from Madrid advise, that orders have lately been sent to the Havanna, to suffer no other nation but their own to trade there.

Some letters from Vienna advise, that a misunderstanding had lately arisen between that Court and the King of Prussia; the consequence of which was much dreaded.

PORTSMOUTH, (New-Hampshire) May 24.

Capt. Hickson from London, informs, That in Lat. 40:00 N. and Long. 30:00 West, he saw a Ship the 28th of April, and went on board her, but found no Person; she had no Sails, loaded with Masts, and White Pine Boards, and appeared to be of the North Country built, having no Head nor Galleries, a very round Side, and what they call a Pink, and over the Cabbin Table was wrote, All fair under the Rose.

NEWPORT, May 27.

Captain Wilcocks arrived here Yesterday in 31 Days from the Bay of Honduras. He left there the Captains Rodman, Godfrey, Nixon, Holway, Isaiah and Zebedee Grinold, Greeman, and Scranton, all of this Port, and Kinnicutt and Godfrey of Providence. Unanimity and Harmony seemed to be well established between the subjects of each Nation at the Bay, in Consequence of the Regulations settled by Sir William Burnaby, as mentioned under the New-York Head.

NEW-YORK, June 3.

Mr. Cummings, formerly a Printer in Cork, and about 14 Years ago a Merchant in New-York, in Company with Johnson, who planned the Conquest of Senegal and Goree, has obtained a Grant of 500 l. per Annum for thirty Years, as a Reward for his Services.

The Six Nations, with the Delawares of Susquehanna, who were long expected by Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, arrived at Johnson-Hall the 6th of May; and we are assured have agreed to the Particulars recommended to them by the King's Orders. The Delawares of Ohio, with those of Susquehanna, have subscribed to a Treaty of Peace, which must prove very advantageous, if duly observed; and their Readiness upon this Occasion has a very promising Appearance. The latter have left their two Chiefs as Hostages, until they bring down some Prisoners and Negroes amongst them; and the Senecas have done the same, as there are yet some Prisoners amongst them. The Number of Indians assembled on this Occasion, exceeded Nine Hundred: They were to go to their respective Homes a few Days after the 16th of May; and the Prisoners, &c. were to be delivered up within forty Days; in which time there is reason to expect they will be punctual, as there are so many of their Chiefs Hostages at present in Sir William's Custody, whose Enlargements must be greatly desired by the several Nations.

BURLINGTON, New-Jersey, June 5, 1765.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.

By the HONOURABLE

JOHN PENN, Esq;

Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent, and Sussex, on Delaware.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation given at St. James's the Seventh Day of October, 1763, in the Third Year of His Reign, was graciously pleased to declare and enjoin, that the Trade with the several Nations or Tribes of Indians, with whom He is connected, and who live under His Protection, should be free and open to all His Majesty's Subjects whatever; provided that every Person who might incline to trade with the said Indians, should take out a Licence for carrying on such Trade from the Governor or Commander in Chief of any of His Colonies respectively, where such Persons should reside; and also give Security to observe such Regulations as His Majesty should at any Time think fit, by Himself, or by His Commissaries to be appointed for that Purpose, to order and direct for the Benefit of the said Trade: And His Majesty did thereby authorize, enjoin and require, the Governors and Commanders in Chief of all His Colonies respectively, as well those under His immediate Government, as those under the Government and Direction of Proprietaries, to grant such Licences without Fee or Reward, taking especial Care to insert therein a Condition, that such Licence should be void, and the Security forfeited, in case the Person to whom the same is granted, should refuse or neglect to observe such Regulations as His Majesty should think proper to prescribe as aforesaid.

AND WHEREAS by my Proclamation, dated the Fifth Day of December last, a Cessation of all Hostilities between His Majesty's Subjects in this Province, and the several Tribes of Northern and Western Indians, was strictly enjoined and required; since which great Numbers of the said Indians have lately assembled at Fort Pitt, and there renewed and confirmed, with George Croghan, Esq; Deputy Agent for Indian Affairs, their Engagements formerly made with Brigadier General BOUQUET, to cultivate the strictest Harmony and Friendship with all His Majesty's Subjects, and have given sufficient Hostages as a Security for the faithful Performance thereof; and desired that they might again enjoy the Benefit of a Trade with the Inhabitants of this Province:

I HAVE THEREFORE thought fit, by and with the Advice of the Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby publishing and declaring to all His Majesty's Subjects within my Government, that, from and after the Twentieth Day of June inst. all Intercourse and Trade with the several Nations and Tribes of Indians, in Amity with the Crown of Great-Britain, and living under His Majesty's Protection, shall be free and open to all Persons residing in this Province, who shall apply for and obtain my Licence to carry on such Trade, under the Provisions and Restrictions mentioned in the said Royal Proclamation.

AND WHEREAS I have received Information, that sundry Persons have, at several times, lately assembled themselves in armed Bodies on the Western Frontiers of this Province, and have, in a most riotous and illegal Manner, presumed to interrupt the Passage of all Kinds of Goods to Fort Pitt, by which the Garrison there hath been greatly distressed; and that small Parties are now encamped, and lying in wait for the same Purpose, on the Road of Communication to that Post, I DO hereby strictly charge and command all Persons whatsoever so assembled, forthwith to disperse themselves, and desist from all such illegal Proceedings and Practices, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril. AND I DO further enjoin and require all His Majesfty's Subjects within this Government, to ſuffer every Perſon hereafter travelling towards Fort Pitt, with Goods, Wares or Merchandizes, and having my Licence to trade with the Indians, as alſo all Perſons tranſporting Goods and Military Stores for the Uſe of any of His Majeſty's Garriſons, and having a Paſſport for the ſame from a Commanding Officer of one or more of the Poſts, to proceed and paſs with the ſaid Goods, Wares, Merchandizes and Military Stores, freely and ſafely, without offering Violence or Injury to their Perſons, or any Goods under their Charge, or giving them the leaſt Moleſtation whatſoever, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril.

AND I do further enjoin and require all Magiſtrates, Sheriffs and other Officers, to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours at all times to quell and ſuppreſs all Riots, Tumults and diſorderly Proceedings, tending to diſturb the Peace and Quiet of His Majeſty's Subjects; and alſo to be aiding and aſſiſting in diſcovering and apprehending all Perſons, that may be in any Manner concerned therein, that the Offenders may be proſecuted according to due Courſe of Law.

GIVEN under my Hand and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the Fourth Day of June, in the Fifth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-five.

RUN away from the Subſcriber, of Northumberland County, Virginia, on the firſt of May, three Convict Servant Men, who carried with them a Negroe Man Slave, viz. Matthew Leonard, an Iriſhman, about ſix Feet high, well proportioned, his Hair very red and long, which he uſed to tye behind; but as he carried away ſeveral Wigs, it is poſſible they may all cut their Hair and wear Wigs; his Face and Hands are very much freckled, and ſays he has been a Serjeant in the Army; he ſtole a drab coloured Cloth Frock, with yellow Buttons, ſeveral of the Tops off, an old Crimſon Cloth Waiſtcoat, with plain double gilt Buttons, and a Pair of Whitney Breeches, which it is ſuppoſed he will wear. Dennis M'Carney, an Iriſhman, he profeſſes the Trades of a Blackſmith, Copperſmith, Brazier and Tinker, and has worked at each ſince he came into the Country, about 5 Feet 5 Inches high, has a very crooked Noſe, a well made little Fellow, and pretends to play the Slight of Hand. STOLEN out of the paſture of the ſubſcriber, in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, on Monday night, the fourth of March laſt, a bay mare, the property of Richard Deford, about 14 hands and an half high, 13 years old this ſpring, paces well, ſuppoſed to be with foal, had no brand that can be remembered, nor any fleſh mark, except a ſmall ſtreak of white down her noſe, and into her noſtril. It is imagined ſhe was ſtolen by one James Cobourn, an Engliſhman, who ſerved his time with Thomas Emory, of Queen Anne's County, a young man, about 5 feet 6 inches high, has a blemiſh in one of his eyes, occaſioned by the ſmall-pox, his apparel ſuppoſed to be a white cloth coat, ſcarlet cloth waiſtcoat, and leather breeches. ¶ 5 W. JAMES HOLLYDAY.

Queen Anne's County, Feb. 27, 1765.

DOVE,

THAT noted Stallion, imported by Dr. Hamilton, and bred by Mr. Jackſon, a Gentleman very remarkable in the North of England, for the Breed of full ſized, high bred running Horſes. As there are many diſintereſted good Judges in this and the neighbouring Provinces, I refer the Owners of Mares to ſuch Gentlemen for a Deſcription of him, rather than to enter into any Encomiums of him myſelf. He is to cover with me this Seaſon (near Cheſter Church, on the Eaſtern Shore, about 20 Miles below Frederick, in Cecil County, and about 12 Miles above Kent Iſland) at Three Guineas as uſual, or an Equivalent. Some who are fond of early Colts, are reſolved to ſend their Mares late in March to Dove, he is now in good covering Order, ready to proceed to Buſineſs. Some who intend him Mares, have adviſed me to inſiſt on prompt Pay, as by that Means, no Doubt the Horſe will be much more at Leiſure to attend ſuch Cuſtomers, and fewer Mares in that Way will be more agreeable to me, and others concerned, than to undergo a tedious, and perhaps expenſive, Collection: I therefore expect, whoever ſends Mares to Dove, will either ſend the Pay with them, or when they take them away, as furtheſt.-----As it is too true, that many who have good Eſtates are ſcarce of Caſh theſe Times; in order to render the Affair more convenient, I will take Crop Tobacco at Market Price, and return the Ballance in Caſh; or I will accept Orders on good Men. I have four ſeparate Paſtures for Mares, with running Water, the drieſt Day in Summer, in two of them, which contain above 100 Acres. Strict Juſtice ſhall be ſhewn the Mares in every Reſpect; if any-body can really ſuppoſe to the contrary, I am ſo far from ſolliciting his Cuſtom, that I deſire to avoid it. It is very certain Dove was much crowded with Mares before he left the Weſtern Shore, laſt Seaſon, and as he came over here late, it cannot be ſuppoſed the Gentlemen who ſent Mares on this Shore, could have a ſufficient Chance of the Seaſon, ſuch Mares as did not prove with Foal by him, on this Shore, ſhall have Dove this Seaſon gratis, provided they ſend them before the Middle of April, or after the Middle of June. WILLIAM DAMES.

N. B. While I keep Dove, I am fully determined to keep no other Stallion, which will prevent my Paſtures being too much crowded with Mares. ⊕ 11 W.

MADRID, February 19.

THE family compact has rendered the rigid and inflexible Spaniards imitators of all the French faſhions, projects, and manners. This imitation, if it extends to many abſurdities, diſcovers itſelf nevertheleſs in ſome things about whoſe importance and utility there can be no diſpute. Of this kind is the ſpirit of Agriculture and induſtry, which ſome active and patriotic grandees are deſirous to inſpire into their proud, poor and lazy countrymen. The reigning ſpirit of Agriculture, which has become a kind of paſſion among the French, has inflamed the imagination of the Spaniard, and occaſioned the eſtabliſhment of an Academy of Agriculture at Corunna, in the kingdom of Gallicia, whoſe members met, for the firſt time, on the 20th of January laſt. It was opened by the Marquis of Pedrabuena, with an eloquent diſcourſe concerning "The conſtitution and deſign of the Academy, the utility of Agriculture, and its progreſs in Europe, the peculiar circumſtances in the nature of a country, and the character of its inhabitants, that are favourable to the improvement of this uſeful art." This diſcourſe was followed by ſeveral others, delivered by ſome Noblemen of the firſt rank, relative to the fertility of the province in queſtion, the utility of plantations, and the different Academies founded in Europe for the improvement of uſeful arts. After this the Secretary of the Academy exhibited a liſt of twenty artieles, that are to be examined and diſcuſſed in a ſubſequent aſſembly, and relate to the various methods that are proper to be employed for perfecting Agriculture in all its branches.

Civita Vecchia, Feb. 12. According to letters from Leghorn, the corſairs of Tunis, following the example of the Algerines, have reſolved to attack the Tuſcan flag.

It is aſſured that the Malteſe have undertaken, for a certain ſum of money, to ſend ſhips into the Adriatick, to ſecure the trade of the Catholick States againſt the Barbarians.

Warſaw, March 6. It is the general opinion, that it is not the intereſt of Poland to act in any reſpect that may tend to leſſen the good underſtanding which ſubſiſts between the Republick, and the Court of Berlin; and therefore, that the intended new duties upon goods brought into the kingdom will not take place.

M. Benoit, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Reſident here, has preſented a Memorial to the Miniſtry upon this ſubject, in which great complaints are made of the difficulties that are made in Poland againſt granting paſſports for the horſes which the King of Pruſſia buys in that country; and ſets forth that ſuch refuſal is not only contrary to what has always been obſerved between Poland and the Houſe of Brandenbourg, but alſo to the general behaviour of the Powers of Europe towards each other: And concludes with the Miniſter's Proteſt againſt all innovations, and declaring, that if a ſtop is is not put to them, the King his maſter will probably take ſome meaſures very diſagreeable to the Poliſh nation.

Paris, March 5. The Parliament of Brittany, who were ſent for by order of the King, had an audience on the 18th, when his Majeſty ſpoke to them in theſe words: "You have violated my confidence, by diſcloſing the ſecret which I had intruſted to three of your Members; you have ſent back my letters Patent by the Poſt; you have dared to tear down the copies of the Arrets of my Council, and have completed the ruin of my province of Brittany, by the ceſſation of your office; and you have now preſented remonſtrances to me. Judge of my goodneſs from my conſent to receive them."

On the 20th they were admitted again, when the King made known his intentions in the following manner: I have read your Remonſtrances; they are drawn up with a warmth of expreſſion which I diſapprove, and I forbid the printing them. You ſay I have not been informed of the circumſtances. Nothing is more falſe. I have read every thing you have done, and nothing has been addreſſed to you but by my order. Return to Rennes without delay. Let your ſervice be reſumed, as ſoon as you arrive there. I order it expreſly, and will give no further anſwer till I am obeyed. This is the only means to merit a return of my good will."

Vienna, March 23. We have an account from Carlſtadt, in Tranſylvania, of a moſt ſhocking tranſaction which paſſed at Carnor, about two leagues from that town. A man who had been a few months married to a young woman of eighteen, of whom he was exceedingly jealous, having taken ſome exceptions to her conduct, locked himſelf up one evening with her and her mother; he ſtripped his wife, and having faſtened her to the wall with wooden pegs, he cut off her ears, noſe, and two breaſts, and drove a ſtake into her belly. He then cut open her ſide with a knife, and not finding her heart, which he wanted, he opened the other ſide, from which he took it out. He then looſened the poor wretch, laid her on the ground, to which he faſtened her with three pegs; after which he laid himſelf down by the dead body, and as if being ſatiated with barbarity had produced the ſame effects with drunkenneſs, he fell into ſo profound a ſleep, that his mother in law, who expected the ſame fate, eaſily opened the doors, and eſcaped into the neighbourhood, where ſhe gave an account of the ſhocking ſcene ſhe had been witneſs to. Proper perſons were diſpatched, who ſeized this furious ſavage while ſtill aſleep. The puniſhment inflicted on him correſponds with the manners of the antient Scythians, and is proportioned to ſo unheard-of a crime. The wretch was conducted on foot to the gallows, where he was ſtript, after which his noſe, ears, and the fleſh of his breaſt, were torn off with hot pincers. He was to have had his eyes plucked out, but this was omitted, becauſe from a Schiſmatic he became a Catholic. They then faſtened his feet to the tail of his own horſe, and dragged him three times round the gallows; after which they cut off his two hands, one after the other, by ſlow and deliberate ſtrokes. They then cleaved his head, opened his breaſt, and took out his heart, which was cut into ſeveral pieces. At laſt his limbs were nailed to the gallows ſo low, that dogs and wild animals might reach them: and they were in fact devoured before night. This wretch bore theſe ſevere torments with incredible firmneſs and reſolution. On the ſame day a neighbour of this inhuman wretch was taken up for the crime of cutting off his wife's breaſt from a like principle of jealouſy.

LONDON, March 9.

On the 11th ult. fountains of wine were running the whole day at Vienna (on account of the marriage of the King of the Romans) at the expence of the Bavarian Miniſter, who likewiſe cauſed a conſiderable number of ſilver medals to be thrown among the populace. His Excellency gave the ſame day a ball to 2000 perſons of the firſt and ſecond claſs of nobility.

March 12. We hear a ſcheme is now under conſideration for eſtabliſhing a Printing-office, at the government's expence, in the Iſle of Man.

March 14. They write from Toulon, that the Entreprenant and Capricieux, two French men of war of the line, the firſt of 74, and the other of 64 guns, named after two ſhips of the ſame rates deſtroyed in the late war at Louiſburgh, are now in great forwardneſs in that port, and will be ready to launch ſome time in june next.

Extract of a Letter from a Port in Spain, Jan. 23, 1765.

"I have lately received a copy of a memorial from the Marquis of Grimaldi to the Earl of Rochford, acquainting his Excellency, that at his requeſt his Catholick Majeſty had revoked the order relating to Vice-Conſuls being Britiſh ſubjects, giving the Conſuls leave to appoint them of any nation; and alſo that the preſent Vice-Conſuls, or Agents, may act for four months from the date of the ſaid memorial, &c.

"On this agreeable event give me leave to obſerve, that his Excellency hath, in one ſingle conference, effectually obtained what all the Engliſh Ambaſſadors and Miniſters at the Court of Madrid have been aſſiduouſly endeavouring to obtain for upwards of fifty years paſt without effect, viz. ever ſince the famous treaty of Utrecht in 1713, and will be of infinite advantage to the Britiſh ſubjects who trade to this kingdom."

March 16. It is ſaid a ſcheme is now under conſideration to remove the neceſſity of employing military or other agents in the future payment of his Majeſty's land forces and marines.

We hear the importation of American bar iron will ſpeedily merit parliamentary encouragement, in order to leſſen the large annual ſums ſent out of the kingdom for this commodity from Ruſſia and the Baltick.

March 19. They write from Hamburgh, that certain treaties have for ſome time paſt been in agitation between the Courts of Verſailles and Peterſburgh, which the vigilance of his Pruſſian Majeſty could by no means overlook, and had alſo occaſioned ſome diſpatches of importance to be ſent to both theſe Powers from the Court of London.

It is ſaid, in caſe of veſting the ſeveral African ſettlements in the Crown, the trade to that coaſt will be regulated on a new plan, for the general benefit of his Majeſty's American as well as European ſubjects; and that certain duties are to be laid thereon, capable of producing an additional million into the Treaſury.

March 21. Letters from Stutgard of the 8th inſtant adviſe, that the differences between the Duke of Wirtemberg and his ſubjects ſeem to be near terminated. In an audience which that Prince had with the Pruſſian and Daniſh Miniſters he declared, that he would liſten to any reaſonable propoſitions offered by their Royal Maſters towards a compromiſe.

We hear that 50,000 l. will be granted by an auguſt Aſſembly to enable his Majeſty to make good his engagements with the Land-grave of Heſſe-Caſſel.

We hear the laſt diſpatches from Peterſburgh brought an account that the treaty of alliance and friendſhip between the Courts of Ruſſia and Denmark was concluded the fifteenth ult.

April 2. They write from Warſaw, that the Poliſh troops aſſembling near Czernichew, are ſuppoſed to be deſtined for the county of Zips, to give the King of Poland's brother poſſeſſion of that Staroſty; an attempt that will probably be attended with much difficulty, unleſs the mortgage due to the Houſe of Auſtria be firſt diſcharged.

They write from Strelitz, that a command of Swediſh Huſſars had entered his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Mecklenburgh Sterlitz's territories without leave, in purſuit of M. Lindeman, late Director of the Poſt-Office at Stralſund, who eſcaped out of a place of confinement, to which he had been committed for embezzeling the government's money. This tranſaction being in violation of the law of nations, ſatisfaction has been demanded of the Court of Stockholm.

April 4. The laſt letters from Amſterdam adviſe, that certain commercial diſputes at preſent ſubſiſt between the Dutch and Portugueſe, by which it was thought the former would be obliged to agree to ſome new duties on importation, or be obliged to relinquiſh a very lucrative branch of trade, they have in a manner engroſſed unrivalled for half a century paſt.

We hear a very ſevere clauſe will ſoon be annexed to the act againſt enveigling Britiſh artificers into foreign ſervice, in which the parties engaged are to undergo the ſame penalty as the agent, and that both will be made felony, without the benefit.

April 6. They write from Hamburgh, that the return of frequent couriers between the Courts of Berlin and Warſaw, has of late been the occaſion of much political ſpeculation; and from which it was conjectured, that ſomething of great conſequence is now upon the carpet between the two Sovereigns, relative to the ſuſpected intentions of the Ottoman Porte.

April 9. The oak timber in the Iſland of Cape Breton has, from ſome late experiments at Portſmouth, been found ſo excellent for ſhip-building, that we hear large quantities are ordered to be imported this ſummer for the uſe of his Majeſty's Dock-yards.

April 11. Laſt week died at Harliſton, in Norfolk, Mr. Richard Catton, of that town, ſchoolmaſter; he was twice married, and by his two wives had been father to forty-three living children.

Monday a Jeſuit, lately arrived in this city, waiting in the Poſt-Office-Yard, Lombard-Street, for the delivery of the letters brought in the Dutch mail, had his pocket picked of a ſilver crucifix, and a ſtring of beads, with ſome other pieces of holy lumber; the thief got clear off with his booty.

April 13. We hear that one brief alone to be pleaded to on Lord Byron's trial, conſiſts of 48 ſheets of paper, and that ſome others are longer; from whence it is concluded that the hearing of that great cauſe will continue ſome days.

Letters from Poland adviſe, that the regency of Dantzick have reſolved to make the King of Poland a very conſiderable free gift, in grateful acknowledgment of his Majeſty's favour and indulgence, in confirming the privileges, liberties, and prerogatives of that city.

April 16. They write from the Hague, that the Princeſs Dowager of Orange and Naſſau, grandmother of the Prince Stadtholder, died at Leeuwarden the 9th inſtant, aged 77 years and two months. This Princeſs was the daughter of Charles Landgrave of Heſſe, and was eſpouſed on the 26th of Feb. 1709, to Prince John William Friſo, of Naſſau-Dietz, who had the misfortune to be drowned on the 14th of July, 1711.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) May 11.

We are informed, from authority that ſeems pretty good, that a large body of native Mexicans, joined with ſome Creole Spaniards, have lately revolted from the Spaniſh government, and made themſelves maſters of the capital (Merida we ſuppoſe) of Mexico; and that they purſued the Viceroy from thence quite to La Vera Cruz, which they have likewiſe beſieged. This news was brought by a ſnow packet-boat from the laſt named port, diſpatched to Monto-Chriſti, &c. for aſſiſtance to cruſh this rebellion.

May 22.

The following is the moſt particular account we have been able to procure of the late expedition of Salloue, or the Young Warrior of Eſtatoe:---"On the 30th of March laſt a hunting party of Cherokees, ten in number, were attacked in their camp by thirty Shawaneſe, Delawares, &c. who killed and ſcalped one young man, and made two young men, three boys, and two women, priſoners; two young men got off, and gave information to their people, on which fifty men were diſpatched the next day to march with the greateſt expedition, in order, if poſſible, to retake the priſoners, and revenge the inſult; the command of the whole being given to Salloue.

"April 9th, late in the evening, the ſcouts diſcovered the enemy, of which Salloue being informed, immediately called a council of war, when it was agreed to dog them to their camp, there ſurround and attack them early in the morning: Accordingly on the 10th, about day-break, the Cherokees poured in upon the enemy, ſome whereof were mending their mockaſins, and others not got up; they releaſed their own people, who were lying in the ſtocks, killed and ſcalped four of the enemy, two of whom were warriors, and wounded a great many, took about 20 guns, 12 tomahawks, and a number of wampum belts, ſome gorgets, and all their cloaths, which laſt were of very little value. The Cherokees had one man killed, and three wounded, one with a tomahawk, another with a ſpear, and the third with an arrow. Notwithſtanding the ſurpriſe, and what the enemy ſuffered, they carried off one of their priſoners. Upon the receipt of the news, on the 24th paſt, three of the great guns were fired at Chote, and the party, with their brave leader, were received with all the honours their countrymen could give them."

BOSTON, June 3.

Our Trade is in a moſt deplorable Situation, not one fifth Part of the Veſſels now employed in the Weſt-India Trade, as was before the late Regulations; Our Caſh almoſt gone before the Stamp and Poſt-Office Acts are to operate; Bankruptcies multiplied, our Fears increaſed, and the Friends of Liberty under the greateſt Deſpondency: What theſe things will end in, Time only can diſcover.

NEW-LONDON, May 24.

A Number of the Inhabitants of Windham were a few Days ago warned to work on the Highways in that Town, when one of them refuſed to work; whereupon the Surveyor uſed his influence to perſuade him to it, but to no Purpoſe, he abſolutely refuſing to work on the Highways, ſince (as he ſaid) a Stamp-Duty was laid on the Colony.

NEWPORT, June 3.

At the Election at Hartford, in Connecticut, on the 9th ult. the Hon. Thomas Fitch, Eſq; was choſen Governor, and the Hon. William Pitkin, Eſq; Deputy-Governor.

NEW-YORK, June 10.

By a Gentleman who arrived here laſt Week, from Montreal, we have the following melancholy Piece of Intelligence, viz. That on the 17th ultimo, at Half after One in the Afternoon, a Fire broke out in the Houſe of Mr. John Livingſton, of this Place, and there being only two ſmall Engines, and the French extremely ignorant of the Method of extinguiſhing Fires, the Flames ſoon ſpread with great Rapidity on both ſides of the Street, and the Wind being very high, 115 Houſes were entirely conſumed by Six o'Clock in the Evening, with immenſe Quantities of Goods contained therein, it being the principal Street in the Place, and where all the Engliſh Merchants reſided. A Nunnery was alſo conſumed, and three Nuns, a French Gentleman and Lady, and a Negroe Wench, loſt their Lives. On this Occaſion, the Army, animated by the Preſence of Brigadier General Burton, exerted themſelves in a particular Manner, and it is ſaid it was owing to their Activity that the whole Town was not deſtroyed, as ſeveral of the poor Soldiers were much burnt in removing Goods from the Houſes whilſt in Flames, moſt of the French Inhabitants having retired to their Churches, being greatly intimidated by ſome ſmall Exploſions of Gun-powder that happened whilſt the Houſes were in Flames, as ſeveral of the Merchants, very imprudently, had Quantities of that Article in their Garrets. It is ſaid the Fire was occaſioned by a Negroe Wench carrying a Quantity of Aſhes into the upper Story of Mr. Livingſton's Houſe, not with any bad Deſign, but to be kept there for making Soap.----The following Engliſh Merchants have been great Sufferers, viz. Vanderheyden, Stanhouſe, Neagles & Barron, Simenſon and Delale, Howard, Morriſon and Holmes, M'Craken, Patterſon and Grant, and Knipe, and Duane; Mr. Livingſton ſuſtained little Loſs; tho' the Fire firſt broke out in his own Houſe.----The following French Gentlemen, beſides many others of the ſame Nation, ſuffered much, viz. Mr. Lecorn, Dumay, and Irview.

We hear, that upon Application of the Rev. Mr. Wheelock of Lebanon, in Connecticut, to the Conſiſtory of the Dutch Church of this City, deſiring their Aſſiſtance, to enable him to carry on the laudable Scheme of ſpreading the Chriſtian Knowledge among the Indians, a very handſome Collection was Yeſterday made in both their Churches:---An Example truly worthy of Imitation; as the ſpreading of the Goſpel among the Savages, is certainly the moſt effectual Way to civilize them: And it is therefore to be wiſhed, that Collections, for the ſame good Purpoſes, were made in all the Churches on the Continent, that all will be equally benefited by their being made a civilized, inſtead of a barbarous, People, and brought from the Errors of Paganiſm, to the Truths of the Goſpel.

Friday Morning laſt the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD preached his Farewel Sermon to the Inhabitants of this Place in the Preſbyterian Meeting-Houſe; and Yeſterday he embarked for England in the Earl of Halifax Packet.

Capt. Napier, in a Snow from this Port, for London, we are told, put into Halifax in a leaky Condition, his Veſſel being ſtruck with Lightning ſome Days after he left this Port, by which Accident three of his Men were killed, and his Mate much hurt.

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.

DIALOGUE, AIR and CHORUS, at the Commencement in the College of Philadelphia, May 30, 1765.

DAMON.

'TIS done----Your patient Ear we greet no more,
With varied Strains of Academic Lore.
Prepare we now to frame ſome joyous Lay,
In rapturous Mood, to cloſe this feſtal Day.

THYRSIS.

DAMON begin------Let thy mellifluous Tongue,
In mazy melting Numbers lead the Song.
Long have theſe Walls preſented to our View,
The weeping Cypreſs, and the baleful Yew.
Long have the Muſes mourn'd our Heroes ſlain,
And ſeen Deſtruction heap th' enſanguin'd Plain;
But now we bring the Myrtle and the Bay,
And all the bloomy Pride of blythſome May,
To deck the Muſes Seat------Strike bold the Lyre,
And let returning PEACE the Strain inſpire.

DAMON.

Not more delightful is the bubbling Fount
To Shepherd panting o'er the parched Mount,
Than is the Theme my Thyrſis would impart,
To ſwell with Rapture Damon's glowing Heart.
Can we forget how, thro' the trackleſs Wood,
With Phalanx firm, and Sword unſtain'd in Blood,
Our brave * Commander urg'd his glorious Way,
And bent the fierce Barbarians to his Sway;
Taught them our Power and Mercy both to own,
And ſhook the haughty Chieftians on their Throne?
The mournful Captives, hopeleſs and forlorn,
From Goſpel-light, from Friends, from Freedom torn,
Reſtor'd by him, again behold their Home,
Rejoic'd------in ſavage Wilds no more to roam!
Yon Heav'ns the Deed approve------ſtrike bold the Lyre,
And let returning PEACE the Strain inſpire.

AIR.

PEACE! thou white rob'd Child of Light;
Thine is every ſofter Scene!
Young ey'd Pleaſure, gay Delight,
Still attend thy ſylvan Reign.
Where'er thou deign'ſt to be a Gueſt,
Corroding Care forſakes the Breaſt.

THYRSIS.

When PEACE deſcending from celeſtial Day,
To Seats of Mortals wings her radiant Way,
Thus happy Swains their rural Reeds employ,
And all the Muſes join the general Joy.
Yet other Subjects claim the votive Lay,
In Gratulations ſacred to this Day.
To cheer theſe Walls, behold a God-like Band,
From diſtant Regions, reach their liberal Hand!
All-hail, ye Sons of Science! Wake the Lyre
And let their Names the joyous Strains inſpire!

DAMON.

YES! we will ſing when grateful Raptures move!
Can nurtur'd Child forget a Parent's Love?
Then might we ceaſe to warble from our Tongue,
The Heav'n-illumin'd patriotic Throng,
Who, by the generous Love of Science fir'd,
To bleſs this Academic Seat conſpir'd!
Illuſtrious is the Roll!-----The ſacred Name
Of gracious GEORGE † firſt dignifies the Theme.
Then, mitred § SECKER, Learning's mildeſt Son,
Whom pure Religion joys to call her own,

Best possible image.

We next behold! And ‡ PENN, who oft before
Dispens'd his Bounty----and a Thousand more----
But who can count the Dew-drops of the Morn;
Or spangling Stars which yonder Skies adorn?
All-hail, ye Sons of Science! Wake the Song;
And let these vaulted Roofs the echoing Notes prolong!

CHORUS.

I.

SONS of Science! loudly sing;
Let these vaulted Roofs resound.
Learning's Friend is Britain's King;
Tell it to the World around.

II.

INFANT Science call'd for Aid,
Mournful, in a distant Wild;
Bands of Worthies by him led,
Joyous, nurs'd the drooping Child!
Sons of Science! loudly sing
Learning's Friend is Britain's King;
Ever, ever live the King!

strong Recommendation, and constant Countenance of this Collection, was singularly instrumental to its Success. Many other distinguished Names, both among the Clergy and Laity, deserve particular Mention. But this will be reserved till the final Settlement of the Collection in England, which is soon expected; when a List of the whole will be published.

‡ The honourable Proprietaries of this Province gave £500 Sterling to the Collection; besides £500 Currency, and a valuable Tract of 2500 Acres of Land in Bucks County, the particular Benefaction of Thomas Penn, Esq; so that the Seminary will ever have Reason to retain the most grateful Remembrance of the Munificence of this honourable Family, which has amounted on the whole to the Value of at least £4000 Pennsylvania Money.

Extract of a Letter from Staunton, in Virginia, dated May 29.

"On the 12th Instant, two of the Party of Cherokee Indians, who escaped from the White People, went to the House of a blind Man, about ten Miles from hence, where they tomahawked him and his Wife, and took a very small Scalp off of the Man, but did not disfigure the Woman. The same Day, about four Miles from thence, as they were lying behind a Log, a Man on Horseback came up, and his Horse starting, threw him, when one of the Indians seized and struck him in the Cheek with his Tomahawk, and imagiaing he had done his Business, left him, and went to assist the other in catching the Horse, but in the mean time the Man escaped, putting his Hat under the Wound, to catch the Blood, that they might not track him."

On Friday last the Brig Mary and Elizabeth, Captain Sparks, arrived here from London---He left the Downes the 12th of April.

The Ship Prince George, Captain Robinson, we hear, sails for London the 18th Instant.

Arrived. At Antigua. Captains Simpson and Steed, from this Port, and Captain Spain from Maryland----At Madeira Capt. Clapp; and at Lisbon Captain Potts, both from this Place.

Since our last a Flat, with two Men in her, going down Schuylkill, loaded with Stone, sprung a Leak, by which she sunk so quickly, that one of the Men was drowned asleep in the Cabin; the other swam ashore.---And on Tuesday Night a young Man fell from the Steeple of the New Presbyterian Church, when he was so much bruised, that he died in a few Minutes after.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

LAND-OFFICE, 17th of June, 1765.

THE Honourable the PROPRIETARIES having been apprized that many Perſons have been, and ſtill continue, in the Practice of taking up large Quantities of Land within this Province, only with a Deſign to retail them out at advanced Prices, by which Means Perſons really in Want of Lands, and willing to make immediate Settlements, are often prevented from obtaining them, on thoſe moderate and eaſy original Terms propoſed by the Proprietaries, for the Encouragement of the Inhabitants: And the Proprietaries, being deſirous to put a Stop to a Practice ſo repugnant to the general Good, and as far as in their Power, prevent the troubleſome and expenſive Contentions and Attendances in the Land-Office, and other Proprietary Offices (owing to the long Delay of the People in applying for a Confirmation of their Titles, which neceſſarily creates Intricacies in their Claims, frequent Impoſitions on the Offices, and Applications for Lands either granted before, or to which other Perſons have prior Claims, with many other Inconveniences difficult to be avoided, on the preſent Mode of granting Lands) it is therefore propoſed to make ſome Alterations in that Mode, and that for the future, the following Method ſhall be obſerved for granting Lands within this Province, viz.

First, That every Perſon deſirous to ſettle any vacant Land purchaſed of the Indians, and not appropriated to the Proprietaries Uſe, ſhall apply to the Secretary of the Land-Office, who, in a Book to be opened for that Purpoſe, ſhall, inſtead of granting a Warrant, regularly enter ſuch Perſon's Name, with the Date of his Application, and the Deſcription or Location of the Land. Provided nevertheleſs, That no ſuch Application ſhall be received by the Secretary for more than Three Hundred Acres to any one Perſon, without the ſpecial Order of the Proprietaries, or their Commiſſioner of Property; and that every Evening the Secretary ſhall cauſe a true Copy of all the Applications of that Day, regularly numbered in the Order as applied for, to be ſent to the Surveyor-General's Office.

Second, That on Receipt of the Copies of ſuch Applications, the Surveyor-General ſhall, with all poſſible Diſpatch, tranſmit Tranſcripts of them to his Deputy in each County, in whoſe reſpective Diſtricts they fall, with their Dates of Entry reſpectively, and an Order for ſurveying the Lands agreeable thereto.

Third, That the Deputy Surveyor ſhall, within Six Months after the Date of the Entry of each Application reſpectively in the Secretary's Office, finiſh and make Return, into the Surveyor-General's Office, of the Survey of the Land ſpecified in each Application and Order of Survey, provided the Copies of ſuch Applications be delivered to him in a reaſonable Time; and the Perſons for whom the Surveys are to be made, or ſome other on their Behalf, ſhall duly attend the Deputy Surveyor, to ſhew him the Land, at the Time he ſhall appoint, whereof the Deputy ſhall give due and timely Notice to the Appliers. And for the more regular Management of this, the Surveyor-General ſhall frame, and ſend to his Deputies, proper Inſtructions; and, by all Means in his Power, take Care that they do their Duty; and if any Deputy Surveyor ſhall be guilty of Neglect, or Breach of Duty in the Premiſes, he, upon Complaint and due Proof made to the Commiſſioner of Property, or Surveyor-General, ſhall be ſuperceded from his Office. But if through any Neglect of ſuch Applier to attend the Deputy Surveyor, to ſhew the Land at the Time appointed, or for any other good Cauſe, ſuch Deputy ſhall not have it in his Power to make the Return in the Time limited, he ſhall, before the Expiration of that Time, certify ſuch Cauſe to the Surveyor-General.

Fourth, That as all poſſible Care will thus be taken, on the Part of the Offices, to give Diſpatch, it is expected and required, on the Part of the People, that every Applier ſhall, within Six Months after the Date of the Return of the Survey into the Surveyor-General's Office (which Day he ſhall carefully minute on the Back of each Return reſpectively) be obliged to come and pay in full for the Land to the Receivers-General on the new Terms of Five Pounds Sterling per Hundred Acres, or Value thereof in current Money of Pennſylvania, at the Rate of Exchange between the Cities of London and Philadelphia, with Intereſt from Six Months after the Date of ſuch Application to the Time of Payment; and the Quit-rent to be One Penny Sterling per Acre. And on producing to the Secretary of the Land-Office the Receiver-General's Receipt in full for the Land, a Warrant ſhall iſſue to the Surveyor-General, to accept and make Return of the Survey into the Secretary's Office, who ſhall, on Receipt thereof, make out the Patent with all reaſonable Expedition unleſs the Commiſſioner of Property, on Account of ſome other Perſon having a prior Claim, or other juſt Reaſon, ſhall, for preventing any of the Miſchiefs before ſpecified, ſee good Cauſe to refuſe ſuch Applier a Patent. And every Applier for Land is to take Notice, that if he ſhall neglect to ſhew the Deputy Surveyor the Land at the Time appointed, or ſhall not pay to the Receivers-General the full Purchaſe Money, within the ſaid ſix Months next after the Return of the Survey as aforeſaid, that then, in ſuch or either of theſe Caſes, the Proprietaries, or their Commiſſioner of Property, ſhall be at full Liberty to grant the Land to any other Perſon or Perſons.

Fifth, That all Perſons poſſeſſing or claiming Lands, on Account of any Settlements or Improvements, are required to enter their Applications in the Land-Office, whether on the Eaſt or Weſt Side of Saſquehannah, and to bring with them authentic Certificates, from ſome neighbouring Magiſtrate, of the nature of their Improvements, and the Time when their Settlements were firſt began; and in Default or Neglect of ſuch Applier ſo to do, within Six Months from the Time of opening the ſaid Office, on the Fifth of Auguſt next, the Application of any other Perſon or Perſons will be received for ſuch Lands.

Sixth, That as by the almoſt total Stop put, by the late Indian Wars, to Surveying on the Weſt Side of Saſquehannah, a great many Warrants on that Side of the ſaid River yet remain unexecuted, the Proprietaries Commiſſioner of Property, and Agents, judge it neceſſary to open the Office firſt for the Eaſt Side of that River, in order to give further Time to the Deputies to execute and return the former Warrants for Land on the Weſt Side: And therefore Notice is hereby given, That on the Fifth Day of Auguſt next the Land Office will be opened, for receiving Applications for Lands on the Eaſt Side of the River Saſquehannah only, upon the Plan and Terms aforeſaid; and will be opened alſo for receiving the like Applications for Land on the Weſt Side of Saſquehannah, as ſoon as the ſaid Buſineſs yet remaining to be done there ſhall be compleated, or in ſuch Forwardneſs as to admit of it, whereof due Notice will be given.

And further, That as a conſiderable Part of the Proprietaries Purchaſe Money remains unpaid, for many Plantations which have been ſettled a great Number of Years, notwithſtanding the Owners thereof have been frequently called on, by public Advertiſements, to pay for the ſame; all Perſons, therefore, who have not yet taken out their Patents for any ſuch Lands, are required, between this and the Firſt Day of March next, to come and take out their Patents for the ſaid old ſurveyed Lands, to prevent that Trouble and Inconvenience, both to themſelves and to the Office, which muſt neceſſarily enſue, from their neglecting longer to compleat their Titles.

WHEREAS a Report has been ſpread, that we Peter Hendrick Striepers, and John Herbergs, lay Claim to great Part of the North End of this City; to all Frankfort, and a Part of Weſt New-Jerſey; which Report, we believe, has been ſpread with a Deſign to prejudice the Minds of the People againſt our Title and Claim: Therefore, to take off that Deception, we take this Method of declaring what we do claim, which is, Five Thouſand Acres of Land in this Province, with its Privileges, purchaſed by our Grandfather John Strippers, of William Penn, Eſq; deceaſed, late Proprietor of this Province; alſo Fifty Acres of Liberty Land, and One Acre in this City, as a free Gift of the ſaid William Penn, Eſq; to the ſaid John Striepers; of which we find taken up on ſaid Right as follows, viz. 4448 Acres in Bucks County, called Strieper's, or the Dutch Tract, adjoining the London Company Lands in Tinicum Townſhip; 275 Acres in New Providence Townſhip, at a Place called the Trap; about 275 Acres in and about Germantown; alſo 50 Acres of Liberty Land, near Germantown, and three whole Lots in this City, lying in the Square between Fourth and Fifth-ſtreets, and Vine and Race-ſtreets. And whereas we can plainly make it appear that we, and thoſe who have impowered us, are the true and lawful Heirs of the ſaid John Striepers, wherefore we have come over on purpoſe to take Poſſeſſion, and ſettle the aforeſaid Eſtate; but as we are Strangers to the Laws of this Country, and unwilling to enter into Lawſuits, we offered to leave the Determination of our Title, and Matters in Controverſy, to three or more Gentlemen, mutually choſen, which was refuſed; therefore we hope no Report will prevail in Prejudice to our Title, and that if we are forced (contrary to our Inclinations) to bring Ejectments againſt thoſe in Poſſeſſion or otherwiſe, into the Law, we ſhall be eſteemed and held excuſable.

TO BE SEEN,

A Very fine and elaborate Piece of SUGAR WORK, or DESERT, done by a German Confectioner, being ſuch as never before was exhibited in this Part of the World.—This Piece of Art repreſents a gigantic Temple; on the Top of which ſtands Fame, with both their Britannic Majeſties Names in a Laurel Wreath; in the Temple is the King of Pruſſia, and the Goddeſs Pallas; at the Entries are placed Pruſſian Guards as Centinels; without are Trumpeters and Kettle-drummers on Horſeback, inviting, as it were, the four Quarters of the Globe, who make their Appearance in triumphal Cars, drawn by Lions, Elephants, Camels and Horſes; together with many more magnificent Repreſentations, not enumerated in this Advertiſement.

The above Confectioner having for many Years ſerved the Imperial, the Royal Pruſſian, and other princely Tables, and being now willing to make himſelf known in this Part of the World, has thought it moſt expedient for that Purpoſe to exhibit to the Public this Piece of his Art; offering at the ſame time, if ordered, to make, as well more indifferent, as alſo much finer Pieces for Gentlemens Tables, Weddings, or other Entertainments, at the moſt reaſonable Rates. He is to be met with at Andrew Hook's aboveſaid, or at Mr. Triechel's, Shopkeer in Second-ſtreet, being, with due Deference, the Public's devoted humble Servant,

JOHN WILLIAM MILLER, Confectioner.

Said Miller underſtands that ſome Gentlemen and Ladies are of Opinion that the Work is not of ſuch Art as mentioned, for which Reaſon he offers thoſe who pleaſe to ſee it, to return the Money if they do not find it to their Satisfaction.

To the PRINTER of the PUBLIC LEDGER.

NOTWITHSTANDING it has been frequently mentioned in your paper by several gentlemen, that our colonies were in a most flourishing situation, and that it was very hard they should reap all the advantages arising from the freedom of a British constitution, without subscribing something towards the prodigious sums, which in the course of the late war have been laid out in its defence; yet I must differ very much in opinion from your correspondents, with regard to the opulence of the Colonies. I am in trade myself, Sir, and formerly had considerable orders from the Plantations; but within these three or four years, my business has not only visibly decreased, but even the little I do send to that part of the world is so ill paid, that I have almost determined to discontinue my connections there, and not for the sake of a trifling profit, run the hazard of losing the whole. Every gentleman who knows any thing of the American Commerce, knows very well that not above an eighth of the orders, which were sent over in 1763, came over during the course of last year; and they also know very well, that remittances from our Colonies have been so extremely precarious, that it would be a degree of the greatest rashness to trust them with any capital quantity of goods.

The reason of this decline in the Plantation trade has been a thousand and a thousand times mentioned. The only Commerce of considerable advantage which our Colonies carried on, was with the neighbouring French and Spanish settlements, who paid them a very high price for their goods. This enabled them to send orders of a most extensive nature every year, for the various manufactures of the mother country, and put it also in their power to be religiously punctual in the payment of their bills. The mother country, however, through a strange principle of policy, thought proper some time ago to lay a restriction upon this trade, between our Colonies and the French and Spanish settlements. By this means our colonies have been deprived of the most material channel of their opulence, and consequently rendered utterly unable to assist the mother country to any degree of importance, by the purchase of its various commodities and manufactures.

This is in short the whole state of the case, and we may exclaim as much as we think proper about the little advantages which our Colonies produce; but our exclamations will be attended with no salutary effects till we remove the cause of the complaint, and restore the Plantations to their former privileges. This we ought to do as speedily as possible, as there is but too much reason to suppose some other of the European nations will establish free ports in America, and prevent the possibility of this beneficial traffic ever to return to our hands.

LONDON, March 15.

Saturday the Cherokee Indians, who have been here some Months, embarked on board a Ship in the River, on their Return home. They were lately before the Lords of Trade, to whom they exhibited a Complaint against some of the Virginians, for encroaching upon their Lands, and were dismissed by them with Assurances of ample Redress.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, March 1.

"A Jew having trapanned into this country two Americans, uncle and nephew, of a nation bordering on Pennsylvania, took it into his head to make a shew of them. He exposed the nephew here, and placed the uncle at Amsterdam: But two persons of the first rank in this country, fired with indignation at seeing two foreigners kept for public shew, who were born free, tho' savages, caused them to be set at liberty; and Sir Joseph Yorke, the British Ambassador, provided them with necessaries for a passage to London, from whence they will be conducted to their own country. Before their departure they were introduced to a ball, where, on request, they set up the war-whoop used among their own people. As they could speak a little English, we had the curiosity to know what they thought of the European Ladies; and they frankly declared, that they gave the preference to the women of their own country.

Extract of a letter from Toulon.

"Monsr. Bompart commands the marine department here; there are in the Bason the following ships, most of them in excellent order, and those that are not so have workmen on them, viz. one of 80 guns, six of 74, eight of 64, three of 60, and four of 50 guns each, are Genoese built, and have no names on their sterns. Ships on the stocks, but in no great forwardness, are two of 74 guns, three of 64, and one of 40. There does not appear to be any want of timber or other materials for finishing the new, or repairing the old ships; and their store-houses are large, and full of all sorts of stores. The number of artificers of all sorts, slaves, &c. employed every day in the dock yards, exceeds 4000 men. The academy is full of young gentlemen. The old fortifications of the town, which appear to have been very mean, and much out of order, are all taken down, and new ones making, upon a different plan from what they were before. About half a mile to the eastward of the town, upon a rising ground, they are making a citadel; when this and the new fortifications are finished, the place will be very strong. Toulon is at present garrisoned by ten battalions; most of the soldiers are employed on the fortifications."

We are assured that divers letters of complaint, of late received from British subjects in different parts of France, will speedily be laid before an august assembly.

We hear that the last dispatches from Paris seem to promise a speedy accommodation, with regard to the payment of the Canada Bills: but we also hear, that a Resolution has been taken to accept nothing under the full sums of principal and interest due thereon, from the ratification of the late treaty of Versailles.

April 16. Last Friday were interred the only mortal remains of the learned, pious and incomparable Dr. Young (Author of the Night Thoughts, &c.) in his parish church of Welwyn, in the county of Hertford. Though he lived celebrated, he was buried with the utmost obscurity, under the Altar-piece, by the side of Lady Betty, his late wife: The common forms of interring the meanest person were not violated upon this occasion, the bell did not toll till his corpse was brought out of his house, which is opposite the church; and though he was both the Founder and Endower of a Charity-school in his parish, neither the Master nor the Children attended his funeral. His pall was supported by the Rev. Dr. Yarborough, the Rev. Mr. Wynne, and several other Divines, who were Rectors or Vicars of the neighbouring parishes: The mourners were his son, his nephew, another near relation, his house-keeper, most of the bearers, and the whole town of Welwyn.

Previous to his death, Dr. Young ordered all his manuscripts to be committed to the flames. Those who know how much he comprized in a small compass, those who recollect that he never wrote on trivial subjects, must lament both his modesty, and the irreparable loss to posterity; especially when they consider that he was the intimate acquaintance of Addison; that he himself was one of the writers of the Spectator; and, excepting Dr. Pearce, the present Bishop of Rochester, the last surviving genius of that incomparable groupe of Authors.

April 17. Yesterday morning, about half an hour after nine, Lord Byron, in his own coach and pair, escorted by a party of the guards, consisting both of horse and foot, attended by the Lieutenant-governor of the Tower, and two other Gentlemen, went in a coach over London-bridge to Westminster-hall. The trial began at 11 o' clock, and continued till five, when the further proceedings were adjourned till this morning at 10 o' clock.

The Counsel for the Crown on this occasion were the Attorney General, the Sollicitor General, Mr. Serjeant Glyn, Mr. Joynes. His Lordship's Counsel were the Hon. Charles Yorke, Mr. Wedderburn, and Mr. Wallace; Attorney, Mr. Potts.

Next morning, about 11 o' clock, the Right Hon. the House of Peers went to Westminster-hall, and proceeded on the examination of the witnesses in support of the charge against Lord Byron; which being finished, the Sollicitor General summed up the evidence; after which Lord Byron, who declined examining any witnesses on his own behalf, told their Lordships, that what he had to offer in his own vindication he had committed to writing, and begged that it might be read by the clerk, as he feared his own voice, considering his present situation, would not be heard. His speech was accordingly read by the clerk, in a very audible and distinct manner, and contained an exact detail of all the particulars relating to the melancholy affair between him and Mr. Chaworth. He said, he declined entering into the circumstances of Mr. Chaworth's behaviour, farther than was necessary for his own defence, expressed his deep and unfeigned sorrow for the event, and reposed himself, with the utmost confidence, on their Lordships justice and humanity, and would with chearfulness acquiesce in the sentence of the noblest and most equitable judicature in the world, whether it were for life or for death. The Peers then adjourned to their own house, and after some time returned, when they found his Lordship guilty of Felony, but not of Murder.-----The witnesses examined on behalf of the Crown, were several Gentlemen in company at the Star and Garter Tavern when the accident happened, the Master and Waiters, Mr. Hawkins, and Mr. Adair, the Surgeons who attended Mr. Chaworth, his uncle, and the Lawyer who made his will.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina)

May 22. Letters from the Cherokee country inform us, that the Mortar, of the Creeks, had sent a talk about the middle of last month to Ouconnostota, or the great Warrior, which was said to have come from some Frenchman about New-Orleans, inviting Ouconnostota, and some other Cherokee headmen, to accompany the Mortar to meet him, and five other French Warriors, some where above Albama fort; but Ouconnostota refused the invitation, though accompanied with a present of rum, saying, "The French now talk for nothing."

Extract of a letter from Mobille in West-Florida, dated April 2.

"On Tuesday the 26th ult. the conferences with the Chickesaws and Choctaws were opened: They are as favourable and friendly as can be conceived. There are here above two thousand Indians, and so orderly, that they are hardly heard in town. The Superintendant [John Stuart, Esq;] is much caressed by them, and is this day to receive a beloved name from them with great solemnity: He has sent Peter Acton Sinnot, Esq; up the Mississippi to the Illinois, who is accompanied by Monsr. De la Gauterais, now a British subject, and intimately acquainted with the tribes on that river. He has likewise sent Lieut. Charles Stuart to Point Iberville, where Capt. James Campbell commands, to settle all matters with the small tribes round that post. In short, every thing here thus far promises peace, and we shall soon know what humour the Creeks are in, as they are to be with us in about a month or so."

May 29. Letters from Pensacola, in West-Florida, of the 4th instant advise, that the congress which the Hon. John Steuart, Esq; superintendant of the southern district of America, had been holding for some time with several nations of Indians, was ended much to the satisfaction of the said Indians, who had consented that British subjects might settle and possess any part of their country, within forty leagues from the sea. It was reported that 400 Acadians were lately arrived at New-Orleans, and the West-Floridans began to doubt whether the Spaniards would come to take possession of the said city and island. We are told his Majesty's ships in the Bay of Mexico are extremely vigilant in preventing all clandestine trade between his Majesty's subjects and the subjects of Spain.

Advices from the Cherokee country of a very fresh date, which came to hand last week, inform us, that every thing in that quarter wears a very agreeable aspect. The Mortar of the Creeks is gone home, and Ouconnostota seems very well disposed. The Mortar would never trust himself near any place where the young Warrior of Estatoe was.

BOSTON, June 10.

Tuesday last our most gracious Sovereign King GEORGE III. entered the 28th Year of his Age, on which Occasion his Excellency the Captain General's Troop of Guards, commanded by Brigadier General Royal, and Company of Cadets, commanded by Colonel Jarvis, and the Regiment of Militia in this Town, commanded by Colonel Jackson, with the Company of the Train of Artillery belonging thereto, were all mustered, and performed their several Exercises in the Training-Field; after which the whole marched into King-street, where three Vollies were fired by each of them respectively, followed by a Discharge of the Field Pieces eleven Times, and of the Guns at Castle William and at the two Batteries in Town. The Company of Cadets provided a sumptuous Dinner at the Bunch of Grapes, to which were invited his Excellency the Governor, his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the Officers of his Majesty's Navy and Army that were in Town, and several other Gentlemen. In the Evening his Excellency the Governor, the Honourable his Majesty's Council, the Honourable House of Representatives, the Civil and Military Officers, and a Number of other Gentlemen, met at Faneuil-Hall, where his Majesty's and other loyal Healths were drank; and the whole conducted with great Decency and good Order.

NEW-LONDON, June 7.

Last Tuesday being the Birth Day of our most gracious Sovereign King GEORGE the Third, when he entered the 28th Year of his Age, the same was observed here by a Discharge of Cannon from our Battery, from his Majesty's Ship and Tender in the Harbour, and several Vollies of Small Arms from the Artillery Company, who were mustered on the occasion, and made a very handsome appearance; the whole being conducted with Decency and Order.

NEW-YORK, June 17.

Thursday Morning last, Capt. Dobson, in the Brig Sally, arrived here from Mobille and Pensacola, in 21 Days, and from the Havnnah in 10: He says it was very healthy at Pensacola, but was beginning to be sickly at Mobille, when he came away; the 35th Regiment under the Command of Major Farmer, set out to take Possession of the Illinois the first of May, but that it was suspected the Indians would impede their Passage up the Mississippi, notwithstanding their Pretensions of Friendship. Sir William Barnaby was arrived from the Bay of Honduras with three Ships at Pensacola; and on his Arrival the Merchants of that place waited on him with a very genteel Address, with Regard to the Restraints laid on the Spanish Trade at that Place, to which he returned the following Answer.

To the Gentlemen Merchants, and Inhabitants of the Town of Pensacola.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you very sincerely for the Honour you have done me in this Address, and for the high Opinion you are pleased to express of my Conduct, in respect to the Bay of Honduras; it will ever afford me Pleasure, whenever I have it in my Power to render any service to my Country; and I am extremely happy whenever my poor Endeavours meet with Approbation.

Among the different Commands I am honoured with from His Majesty, the peculiar Care of the Province of West-Florida is one: I can faithfully assure you, it has ever been, and shall be the principal Object of my Attention; and I esteem myself happy, that my conduct has hitherto met with your Approbation.

It gives me great Concern to hear you have met with the Obstructions to your Commerce of which you complain; the Matter is extremely delicate, comprehending, in some Part, the old Dispute concerning the Letter and Sentence of the Law. Exportation of Silver in any Vessel, I am clearly of Opinion, is permitted both by the one and the other: But as I have received Instructions, signifying it is his Majesty's Intentions, that Vessels coming into our Ports for Refreshments as formerly, laden with Merchandize to the Detriment of the Manufactures of Great Britain, should receive all the Indulgence they were accustomed to experience: And as I have communicated those Instructions (which sufficiently shew the Intention of Government) to the Captains of His Majesty's Ships under my Command, to whom you allude; I am hopeful from thence, you will be relieved from those Difficulties, in carrying on a Commerce which every one must confess, to be beneficial in the highest Degree to the Mother Country.

I heartily wish you may feel all the Benefits from it which your Situation seems to promise; and that I may live to see this Colony beneficial to Great-Britain, and advantageous to yourselves.

You may rest assured, nothing shall be wanting on my Part to promote the one or the other, which I think mutually connected.

W. BARNABY.

Capt. Dobson having Occasion to touch at the Havannah, was permitted to proceed no farther up than the Morro, where he saw the Spaniards very busy in repairing the old Works of the Castle, and erecting several new Batteries near the same: That he heard all the English on the Island of Cuba, were to be sent away in a few Days: That all Contracts lately made there on Account of Trade with the English were soon to be broke; and that, in short, no British Ships would, for the future, be allowed to enter their Ports on any Account, unless in Distress; and several were lately turned away, and refused any kind of Trade.

A Brig belonging to Philadelphia, was loading Cedar at Pensacola when Captain Dobson came away.

By a Gentleman that left New-Orleans the first Day of May, we are told, that not one Spaniard had arrived there to take Possession of that Place; neither was there the least Report of it being expected, notwithstanding the many different Accounts from Time to Time, had, that that Place was to be exchanged for the Spanish Part of Hispaniola.

ANNAPOLIS, June 6.

Burlington, June 10, 1765.

To his Excellency

WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq; Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in over His Majesty's Province of New-Jersey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the same, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the COUNCIL of the Province of New-Jersey.

May it please your EXCELLENCY,

WE very heartily join with your Excellency, in Congratulations upon the Cessation of Hostilities with the Indians, and in your Sentiments respecting the Measures and Conduct of His Majesty's General and Colonel BOUQUET, which, we trust, will produce a lasting Peace with those numerous Tribes that surround the British Colonies. It likewise gives us great Satisfaction, that the Troops furnished by this Province for last Campaign, and the Guards on our Frontiers, have so well performed their Duty.

We assure your Excellency, that it gave us real Pleasure to hear you recommend shortening and rendering more commodious the public Roads, and the Encouragement, by Bounties, of the Cultivation and Production of such Articles as may serve for Remittances to Great-Britain. Nothing in our Power shall be omitted to carry those beneficial and public spirited Measures into Execution. We are fully sensible that this Province is now under great Difficulties, for Want of such Produce as will answer to pay for those various British Manufactures which are, to so great an Amount, consumed among us.

Our hearty Thanks are due to the worthy Society for Manufactures and Commerce, for the many noble and generous Inſtances of their Attention to North-America: Beſides the internal Reward which always attends benevolent Deſigns, we flatter ourſelves that they will have the Satisfaction of ſeeing many of their truly judicious Schemes arrive at Maturity, to the great and mutual Advantage of the Colonies and Mother Country.

The other Matters recommended in your Excellency's Speech ſhall have our ſerious Attention, and every Thing in our Power ſhall be done to continue a perfect Harmony between the different Branches of the Legiſlature, from whence ſo many Benefits flow, to the Honour of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, and the Happineſs of the Province.

The GOVERNOR's Anſwer.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for this obliging Addreſs. Your Approbation of the Meaſures I have recommended affords me great Pleaſure, and I doubt not, from your Readineſs and Zeal to promote the public Good, but that you will forward them all in your Power.

To his Excellency

WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;

Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of the REPRESENTATIVES of ſaid Province, in General Aſſembly convened.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

WE, His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of New-Jerſey, in General Aſſembly convened, thoroughly ſenſible of the numerous Advantages that formerly did, and hereafter muſt, attend an uninterrupted Peace with the Indians, are ſincerely glad of the happy Proſpect lately obtained, that this ſalutary Buſineſs is likely to be effectually ſecured, under Providence, through the Wiſdom and Vigilance of thoſe who have planned, and ſo far executed, the important Charge, and to whom Britain and her Colonies have Obligations, on that Account, that will not ſoon be forgotten.

Agreeable to your Excellency's Recommendation, we have adopted the Meaſure of giving Bounties on Hemp, Flax, and planting of Mulberry Trees, with a View of ſtimulating our Inhabitants to future Induſtry and Wealth, in a Way hitherto but little uſed in this Government, but which, notwithſtanding, appears to us to carry a Probability of ſucceeding, and being in Time conſiderable in the Article of Remittances to the Mother Country. On this Occaſion our Acknowledgments are juſtly due to the Society for Arts, Manufactures and Commerce, on Account of their diſintereſted and benevolent Care reſpecting Improvements in the Colonies.

We alſo thank your Excellency for the Conſideration you have repeatedly ſhewn as to the real Proſperity and Welfare of this Province, and hope, through the Continuance of that Attention and Regard, it may riſe to further Improvements, and not be hereafter thought unworthy the united Attention of the whole Legiſlature, to encourage ſuch Branches of Commerce as may promote Frugality, Induſtry, and a Spirit of Emulation on this Head, that the Purpoſes of paying our Engliſh Debts may be anſwered, without parting with the little Caſh we have; for, under the preſent Diſcouragements, further Means of procuring it ſeems hard to deviſe.

Fully convinced that ſhortening the Poſt Roads would be a Work of public Advantage, if it can be effected without unreaſonably prejudicing Individuals, we have this Seſſion attempted it in Part, and, to be enabled to do it more effectually, have agreed with the Council, that Commiſſioners be appointed to ſurvey other Parts, who are to report at next Seſſion the moſt probable Method for benefiting the Public, with the Injury to which Particulars may be expoſed, if any ſhould appear, in order that ſuch further Meaſures may be then taken as ſhall be thought beſt for the whole.

By Order of the Houſe,

June 15, 1765. ROBERT OGDEN, Speaker.

TO be LETT, by JONATHAN DILLWORTH, of Walnut-street, a three Story House, Kitchen and Wash-house, late in Possession of the Widow Willing, situate on the West Side of Third-street, a little below Walnut-street, and next Door to Joseph Shippen, junior. ‡

The following piece, selected from a late London Paper, was wrote by a worthy North-American, and directed to Thomas Touchit, Esq; of Spring-Gardens.

SIR,

AS a number of interested people are very assiduous in propagating a report that our North-American Colonies omit no opportunity of establishing an independency prejudicial to the Mother Country, it will be a matter highly worthy your known humanity, to set this point in a clear light; and I doubt not therefore but you will readily grant a portion of your useful paper to wipe off the calumnies so unjustly thrown upon so valuable a part of our fellow-subjects.

One of the principal arguments made use of by the enemies of our Colonies, is, that the orders from North-America are every day decreasing, and that the inhabitants of those settlements have already set up a number of Manufactories, which must not only render the assistance of the Mother Country still less and less necessary, but materially affect its interest to boot.

'Tis in reality surprizing, after all that has been said upon this subject, how strange an inclination people manifest to be deceived: Must our sage declaimers against the American Colonies be everlastingly told, that if the demand for the Manufactures of the Mother Country has decreased, that the Mother Country has herself been the occasion of that decrease; and that there is scarcely a Manufactory established in those parts, but what she herself has actually compelled the inhabitants to set up?

If these mighty Patriotic Gentlemen knew any thing about the subject which they so unceasingly dwell on, or had the least intention of being properly informed, they would soon see that while the Mother Country permitted the Colonies to carry on a trade with the French and Spanish settlements, that then the Colonies sent over very extensive orders annually, and never attempted to set up any Manufactories, which could possibly obstruct the interest of this kingdom. In fact, the Colonies were sufficiently employed in supplying the French and Spanish Islands with the Manufactures of the Mother Country, and found it besides so valuable a branch of commerce, that they had neither leisure nor inclination to think of any thing else. When this Trade therefore was prohibited, what were they to do? They could not send over to England for goods without money to pay for them; tho' I dare say, if they had had the least idea, that we should have looked upon this prudent solicitude for their own immediate preservation as an act of arrogance or audacity, they would have submitted to any exigence rather than incur our displeasure, or give birth to that whirlwind of obloquy and slander, which has so violently bursted on their heads.

Whoever is acquainted with the genius of the American Colonies, must know, that nothing is more repugnant both to their Interest and Inclination, than the establishment of Manufactories among themselves: Wherever there is a great tract of Country, and but a small number of inhabitants, the Work of agriculture and husbandry must be the principal objects of the people. They must first provide for their wants, before they can think of gratifying their luxuries; and the Price of manual labour being proportioned to the scarcity of hands, they will sacrifice the ambition of dressing magnificently, to the humbler necessity of getting bread. By this means they can furnish themselves cheaper in fact, from the Mother Country, where the plenty and expertness of Workmen reduces the price of all manufactures to a reasonable Standard, than at home, where the extreme scarcity of workmen, joined to the general inexperience, not only enhances the price to an enormous degree, but even lessens the value of the commodity too.

For these reasons, Mr. Touchit, I look upon it as an utter impossibility for our Colonies to entertain the least notion of rendering themselves independent. If we are chagrined that they do not purchase our manufactures in the same quantities as they formerly did, we have nothing to do but take the restriction from their commerce, which so fatally robs us of the means. If we are offended that they have set up works of their own, let us take away the necessity which compelled them to such a measure, and the consequences will be such as must answer our warmest expectation. We have found the inconveniencies arising from this restriction sufficiently to teach us a little prudence, so that if we do not take it off out of tenderness to the Colonies, we ought at least to remove it out of regard to ourselves.

I am, Sir, your's, &c. A NORTH AMERICAN.

By Captain DIXCEY, arrived at Boston in 45 Days from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, April 17.

LETTERS from Hamburgh, dated the 9th inst. positively say, that in the Divan at Constantinople war was resolved on against the Russians.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland was with His Majesty at St. James's above an hour, the morning that His Royal Highness set out for Newmarket.

April 20. Some important advices have this week been received from Saxony, said to be on the subject of approaching troubles on the continent.

The alarm taken at the clause for quartering troops in private houses in America is not groundless.

Lord Byron, after he was discharged out of custody, took a chair, and so passing through St. James's Park, proceeded to his house in Mortimer-street, near Cavendish-square.

His Lordship's appearance and demeanour, during the whole course of his trial, attracted the attention of the spectators much, for his seeming serenity and composure of mind.

It appears that it was legal to quarter troops in private houses in Scotland before the Union, and it never having been altered by law since, troops are to this day in that country quartered at discretion, on those who neglect or refuse to pay the land tax. This is now urged as a precedent for the like measure in America, though we cannot learn any of our colonies ever refused to pay any taxes imposed on them. As Scotland has been produced as a precedent for America, is it not too much to be feared, that e'er long both Scotland and America may be urged for doing the like in England? If once this happens, adieu to all that is dear and valuable to men.

There is a talk, that the expediency of encreasing the pay of the army will be very soon taken under consideration; the appointments, which were formerly made in moderate times, for their subsistence, being greatly inadequate to the present extraordinary rise in all the necessaries of life.

April 23. We hear the King of Prussia had like to have been burnt by reading in bed; he had fallen asleep, during which the sheets had taken fire.

The King will go to the house to-morrow, to present the Regency bill.

The bill for quartering soldiers in North-America, is put off till next year.

April 24. Yesterday at noon his Majesty came from Richmond to St. James's, when a cabinet council was held on affairs relating to the Plantations, at which the principal Lords of the Council assisted, but there was no levee at Court.

We are assured that the result of some late important Councils, relating to the present untoward disposition of affairs in North-America, has been, to remove not only measures, but men, so far as shall be found necessary to encourage commerce, and restore the public tranquility in that quarter.

We hear that a certain sum of money arisen, or which may arise, from the duties granted by an act of last sessions, for laying certain duties on goods and merchandize in the American colonies, is to be applied for the payment of his Majesty's troops that are kept for the defence of the said colonies and new acquired settlements.

It is said the Court of Versailles, in the last dispatches from London, has been given to understand, that such French ships as shall hereafter be found with certain species of goods on board at Newfoundland, the Gulph of St. Laurence, or any other British territories in North-America, will be seized, and condemned by Court-martials on the Spot, without appeal; neither are the subjects of that Kingdom to be permitted to purchase ready caught cargoes of fish from those of Great-Britain, without incurring the same penalty.

The number of cruizing Ships and Cutters for the Newfoundland station, during the fishery this season, are ordered to be more considerably augmented than was at first intended, in consequence of some late advices from thence.

April 25. Yesterday his Majesty went in state to the House of Peers, attended by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Master of the Horse, and the Earl of Pomfret, and gave the Royal Assent to such Bills as were ready for that purpose; when his Majesty made a Speech to both Houses of Parliament, in which he told them, That the tender concern which he felt for his faithful subjects, made him anxious to provide for every possible event which might affect their future happiness or security.

That his late indisposition, tho' not attended with danger, had led him to consider the situation in which his kingdoms, and his Family, might be left, if it should please God to put a period to his life, whilst his Successor was of tender years.

That the high importance of this subject to the public safety, good order and tranquility; the paternal affection, which he bore to his children, and to all his people; and his earnest desire, that every precaution should be taken, which might tend to preserve the constitution of Great-Britain undisturbed, and the dignity and lustre of its Crown unimpaired; had determined him to lay this weighty business before his Parliament, and as his health, by the blessing of God, was now restored, he took the earliest opportunity of meeting them, and of recommending to their most serious deliberation the making such provision as would be necessary, in case of any of his children should succeed to the Throne, before they shall respectively attain the age of eighteen years.

That to this end, he proposed to their consideration, whether, under the present circumstances, it would not be expedient to vest in him the power of appointing, from time to time, by instruments in writing, under his sign manual, either the Queen, or any other person of his royal family, usually residing in Great-Britain, to be the guardian of the person of such successor, and the regent of these kingdoms, until such successor shall attain the age of eighteen years, subject to the like restrictions and regulations, as are specified and contained in an Act, passed upon a similar occasion, in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of the late King, his royal grandfather: The regent so appointed to be assisted by a council, composed of the several persons, who, by reason of their dignities and offices, are constituted members of the council established by that Act, together with those whom they might think proper to leave to his nomination.

April 26. Yesterday both Houses of Parliament, attended by the Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor, his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the rest of the Bishops, went in procession to St. James's, and presented the joint Address of both Houses to his Majesty, for his Speech from the Throne; who made them a most Gracious Answer.

There was the greatest Court, and Drawing-room, at St. James's, that has been for a considerable time.

His Royal Highness Prince William Henry, who has been very much indisposed some days, was on Tuesday so well recovered as to see Company all the afternoon.

We hear that the same regulations are to take place this summer, with regard to the Dutch fishermen at Shetland, and the French at Newfoundland, viz. all seizable goods, liquors, &c. on board either, to be made prize of, which cannot be comprized in the article of Ship stores.

A particular clause in the Marriage-Act, so far as regards his Majesty's American Islands and Plantations is expected to take place this session.

We hear the late Act for calling in the American Paper currency will not be repealed.

We are credibly informed there is no grounds for a coalition of parties, as has been propagated in several papers.

We hear that his Majesty's ship Belleisle, lying in Hammoaze, at Plymouth, is ordered for America as soon as she can be got ready for sea.

Mr. Wilkes is in very good health at Naples, which he says is the most delightful place he ever saw in his life, and where he proposes to settle. He was visited and complimented by all the English in every town thro' which he passed from Paris to that city.

Letters from the Cape of Good Hope, by the Dutch East-India ship, the Lady Petronella, bring advice, that the Right Hon. Lord Clive arrived there the 7th of January from the Brazils, where he designed to stay a month for the benefit of his health, after which to proceed to Bengal.

The ladies of the Court end of the town, being determined to keep as much as possible a fashion in particular to themselves; or at least to prevent the lower orders of people from approaching too near them in their habiliaments, have invented a new kind of trimming, composed of gold and silver twist, mixed with several sorts of silk, &c. the cost of which only, for a suit of cloaths, amounts to at least ten pounds.

Sunday sevennight, about two o'clock, died at Dublin, after a short illness of two days, in the 79th year of his age, the most Rev. Dr. Charles Cobbe, Lord Archbishop of Dublin; he was educated at Winchester, and then at Trinity College, in the University of Oxford.

They write from Paris that his Most Christian Majesty has granted a Gratification of 18,000 Livres to the Widow Calas, six Thousand to each of her two Daughters, three Thousand to one of her Sons, and the like Sum to the Servant-Maid, without depriving them of the Expectative on the first Judges.

April 27. The following is his Majesty's answer to the mutual address of the Right Hon. the House of Lords and Commons for his most gracious speech from the throne, presented to him on Thursday last at St. James's.

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

YOUR affectionate congratulations upon my recovery, and the sense which you express of your happiness under my government, give me the greatest satisfaction.

"Be assured, I have not a more sincere concern, or a more earnest desire, than to secure to my faithful people, both now and hereafter, the religious and civil blessings of our invaluable constitution."

This morning was held a council at St. James's, on affairs of great Importance.

Since which we hear, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Bute will set out in a few weeks on a tour to France and Italy.

Both Houses of Parliament are expected to be prorogued for the summer season, on or about the 24th of next month, and not before, on account of the great business now before them.

It is now said the American Provinces will have a Liberty to melt down Bullion for establishing a Gold and Silver Currency; not to be coined as in Europe, but stamped, after the Manner practised in the neighbouring Spanish Provinces.

KINGSTON, (Jamaica) April 4, 1765.

Extract of a Letter from the Havannah, dated March 2, 1765.

SO much for business----Now I must inform you of the Spaniards, or rather O'Riely's activity in the military way; my former letters informed you, what vast additional fortifications were going on; the whole Cavannas are fortifying, and that in such a manner that there are two more Moro's erecting, and upon the same plan, all able to secure and defend each other, surrounded with dry ditches cut in the rocks, as deep as the Moro itself; whether they intend to let the sea round we here do not know, as no strangers are permitted to go near any part of their works; if the Moro side was strong before, it is now ten times more so; the town side also will be made as strong as the nature of the ground will admit of, by numbers of forts, lines and intrenchments, all to be mounted with vast numbers of cannon; it is said no less than 15,000 men are employed in these great works; they likewise discipline the people, and the very negroes so strictly, that they perform all parts of the exercise, firings and menœuvres, as well as the regulars, in short, they are kept incessantly at it, have frequent field days and sham battles; lately there were 10,000 men drawn out on the plain between the Land-Gate, and a small village called Guadaloupe, 5000 of them commanded by General O'Riely, which was called the Spanish army, and 5000 men commanded by one O'Connon, the second in command, which was called the English army; every body here that could stir, went out of the town, or upon the ramparts, which commanded the field of battle, to see this sham fight, where after various marches, countermarches, and variety of other movements, the two armies began to draw near enough to begin firing; in one place you would see close solid fire, in another one side prevailing, and the other retreating, then bodies of reserve retrieving the ground again of the retreating party; another place again different bodies moving with the greatest quickness to get some advantageous piece of ground, from which presently they were beat off again, and soon after return to the attack, and regain possession; this lasted above two hours and an half, and sometimes the Spaniards retreated, and sometimes the English, and it is amazing to tell you the emotions this sham battle and the nominal armies caused in the spectators; when the English retreated, vast shouts by the multitude, Pero Angleros (English Dogs) a common word with the Spaniards, they fly; when the English got the advantage there was not so much huzzaing, but encouraging the Spanish party. In the fort that surrounded the ramparts of the town, numbers of common people stood, and just under the place where I was, upon the ramparts, was an English Tar, belonging to some of the Merchantmen here; Jack, who was half seas over, was vastly pleased when the English party prevailed, which drew much the attention of the Spaniards against him, and when the Spanish party prevailed, the honest Tar, with great force of voice, would cry out D- - your eyes Englishmen will you give way? I was highly pleased with the true English spirit of honest Jack, and the agitation he shewed at this contest, between the English and Spanish army, but unfortunately for poor Jack, it was ordained that at last the English party should retire and fly, upon which, no longer able to contain himself, he, with a volley of oaths, flings his cap to the ground, and roars out, O! D--- me, if they were a real English army, we should soon see which would fly (ye Spanish Bougers) on which a Spaniard that understood a little English, was very angry with the sailor, and reprimanded him, upon which Jack cried out, have at you my boy, and knocked the Don down; some other Spaniards coming about him, Jack nimbly attacked them, and laid some of their honours in the dust; a stout able Spaniard, presuming on his own ability of body, offered him battle; Jack striking one of his hands violently against the other, cried out, I am at you my Jewel, and immediately hoisted Don from the ground, and threw him flat on his back, saying, boy that is a cross-buttock; upon this a number of Spaniards got about him, and would certainly have stuck a stilletto into poor Jack, had not an Irish officer luckily come up, seeing a great crowd (and Jack laying about him, crying out fair play, and I will shew you sport my hearts) immediately broke through the crowd, and asked Jack what was the matter; says Jack ask that Don's chops, and his nose, and both that Don's eyes, they will tell you what's the matter; and if your honour will stand by me, I will--here Jack had clinched his huge fist, which made the officer apprehend further mischief, therefore taking hold of his arm, told him, he must know what he was fighting about; why, says Jack, about Old England, and about King George, Lord bless his precious eyes; here Jack's spirits rose above controul, and with his last words he knocked down another Don, upon which the officer told him he must take him into custody, and that he was his prisoner; this he spoke with a seeming wrath, fearing the consequence of their stilletoes to poor Jack; Jack surrendered, saying, he was not above being prisoner to an Englishman, but blast his eyes if he would surrender to a Spaniard; the officer then admonished him, and told him war was not declared against the Spaniards, that it was now a time of peace, and that Jack must behave peaceably; Jack throwing his hat with great violence to the ground, cried out, I declare war myself, D---- my eyes if I don't, I will sham fight them, I will learn them to make the English run; well but Jack, says the officer, they were nothing but Spaniards that run away; here Jack, putting a large quid in his mouth, replied no more they was not, I knew they could not be Englishmen; but come Jack, says the officer, you are my prisoner, and I will take care to put you safe on board your ship; the officer took him away, and was as good as his word."

BOSTON, June 13.

Last Week sailed from Portsmouth, his Majesty's Sloop Fortune, Capt. Bishop.

We hear from Newport, Rhode Island, that his Majesty's Ship Maidstone, having pressed a Number of Seamen belonging to that Place, their Brethren on shore were so much irritated, that on Tuesday last (King's Birth Day) they seized upon her Barge, which having drawn up into the Street, they made a Bonfire of; and it is said one of the Lieutenants making some Resistance, was also much abused.

We hear from Greenfield, in this Province, that on Monday last, as 5 Men were crossing the River in a Canoe, near the Falls, into that Place, she unfortunately overset, when two of them, viz. John M'Crelis and James Lucas, were drowned, the others with much difficulty saved their Lives.

STAMP OFFICE, April 11, 1765.

THE Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp Duties, finding it necessary to alter the Officers Hours of Attendance, give Notice, that for the future all Stationers and other Persons wanting any Vellum, Parchment and Paper to be stamped, are to apply in the Forenoon; the Afternoons being appropriated for the Service of Stamping for AMERICA AND THE WEST INDIES.

NEWPORT, June 17.

Captain Bridges arrived here last Wednesday, from Turks-Island, by whom Samuel Dunscomb, Master of the Sloop Success, belonging to Edenton, in North-Carolina, wrote, That on the 15th ult. at Night, his Sloop struck on the N. W. Reef of the Grand Caucases, and in the Morning saw 15 Sail of Bermudian Wreckers, lying about 3 Leagues distant, to whom he rowed off in his Boat, and offered them one Half of his Vessel and Cargoe for their Assistance; but they told him, they never assisted any Body; that all their Men came out upon Shares; and if they got any Thing, it was for themselves. He then rowed back to his Sloop, the Deck of which was at least a Foot or more under Water, and endeavoured to get out some Provision; during which 8 or 9 of the Bermudian Boats came in, and rowed round the Sloop. He then offered them two Thirds of what they could save; but their Answer was, that they would not help him nor any Body else, nor would even take him and his Men on board. Captain Duscomb and his Men were then obliged to put off in their Boat, and soon after were taken on board a Turtler, and carried to Turks-Island, where they met with Captain Bridges, with whom they came as far as the Capes of Virginia, and there met with a Vessel bound to North-Carolina, by which they got a Passage to Edenton.

NEW-YORK, June 20.

We hear, from good Authority, that on the 3d Inst. Sir William Johnson had just finished with 900 Indians; that his House was then full of Ottowas and Chippawees, and that the Indians of Ohio, Sandusky, &c. were then on their Way to his House, so that he is not likely to have a Moment's Leisure this Season.

Extract of a Letter from Detroit, May 19, 1765.

"Since the Arrival of the Shallop CHARLOTTE, we have been informed, that Maisonville, and Andrew, the Huron, who, you may remember, were sent from this to Fort-Pitt, were sent from thence with some Englishmen to the Illinois, whom it is supposed are burnt; as Pondiac's Nephew arrived at the Miamees from thence the 9th Instant, and told the Indians that Pondiac had seized six Englishmen, one Frenchman, and three Indians, that had been sent from Fort Pitt to that Place, and carried them to Ouiattanon, where they were all burnt, except two, which he intends to bring to the Miamees for a Present.

"Pondiac is now raising the St. Joseph Indians, the Miamees, the Mascoutins, Ouiattanons, Pians and Illinois, to come to this Place the Beginning of next Month, to make what Efforts they can againſt us, for which purpose he has procured a large Belt for each Nation, and one larger than the Rest for a Hatchet for the Whole: They are to be joined by some of the Northern Indians, as is reported. This, they say, is to be an Undertaking of their own, as they are not to have any Assistance from the French.

"When Pondiac left the Miamees, he told them to remain quiet till he came back, as it should then be all Peace or all War.

"I make no Doubt of their Intention to perform what we have been informed of, though I do not think it will come to any Head; and I am likewise well convinced if Pondiac could be made believe he would be well received at this Place, he would desist from any Intentions he may have; but it will be impossible to convince him of that, while there are such a Number of traiterous Villians about him. You cannot imagine what most infamous Lies they have made even since you left this. Some of them Fellows who came from the Miamees last Spring, upon whom we had a Court of Enquiry, are run away, and have made some very insolent Speeches to the Indians."

Wednesday last Captain Roger Richards arrived here from the Coast of Africa: He left Scaralone the 2d of May, and says there was not the least Account of any Disturbance with the French in that Part of the World, nor of their effecting any new Settlements on that Coast, as has been lately mentioned in the London News, when he came away.---Captain Richards left a Number of Vessels on the Coast, and among them the following, viz. Captains Allen, White, Lenox, Williams, Miller, Robertson, Smith, Priest, Reed, Tallow, Addison and Woodburn, belonging to England. Captains Carr, Mumford, Carpenter, and Towman, of Rhode-Island. Logan and Hammond of Philadelphia. Easton of New-London. And Mackey and Harrison of this Port.

Commodore Graves, in his Majesty's Ship the Edgar, with the Shannon Frigate and Hound Sloop of War, were at Gambia the first of May.

Last Night Capt. Quill arrived here from the Bay of Honduras, in 33 Days: He left about 37 Sail of Vessels there, and among them five belonging to this Port: Capt. Turner sailed for this Place 10 Days before Capt. Quill.

Saturday a Sloop arrived here from Rhode-Island, Johnston, Master, who informs us, that as he came out, he met with a Brig belonging to Philadelphia standing in, from London, only 43 Days out; that James Carmer, the late Master, died at Sea, about 14 Days ago, and that she was then commanded by the Mate, Jonathan Garmer.

Niagara, May 30, 1765.

The following Accounts we received last Night from Detroit, from the Commanding Officer, and Col. Vaughan ordered it to be made publick.

SIR,

I RECEIVED Intelligence lately of Pondiac's raising a great many Nations of Indians, who are to assemble at this Place the Beginning of next Month, to make what Efforts they can againſt the English. Though I give little Credit to this Information, yet am determined to be upon my Guard: The same Informers acquainted me, that Six Englishmen, a Frenchman, a Huron, a Mohawk, and a Delaware, arrived at Illinois from Fort-Pitt, a short Time ago, and that they were apprehended by Pondiac's Orders, and carried Prisoners to Ouiattanon, where they were burnt, except two, which Pondiac is carrying along with him to give the Miamees. Whether this be true or not, cannot say.

PHILADELPHIA, June 27.

On Tuesday Morning last we had a smart Thunder-gust here, when one William Davis, a Cooper in Water-street, was killed by the Lightning. There are some Iron Rails on the Top of the House, which it struck first, but, for want of a Conductor to convey it to the Ground, tore up Part of the Shingling, and took the Man on the Right Temple, as he was looking out at a Window, ran down his Side, and melted Part of his Shoe and Knee Buckles, tore his Breeches to Pieces, and the Shoe off his Foot. His Wife, who was in the same Room with him, was knocked down, but after some Time recovered.---This seems to be a Proof of the Usefulness of having Iron Rods, with Conductors, fixed on the Tops of Houses, which might often prevent the bad Effects of Lightning, as has been repeatedly recommended by several Gentlemen in their Electrical Experiments.

Captain Clapp, from Madeira, on the 17th Instant, in Lat. 38, 49, Long. 72: 10, spoke with Captain Montgomery, in a Sloop from New-York for Hispaniola, out three Days, all well.---The Captain brings no Account of any Disturbances like to happen between the Portuguese and Spaniards.
